Samsung XL2370

Wacom Intuos 4

“Wacom make fantastic tablets. Arguably, the Intuos 4 is only literally essential if you're a professional graphic artist or a really keen amateur - but it is a great gadget.”
